

simucase[®]

Student Ambassador

Overview:

A Student Ambassador helps undergraduate and graduate students discover how Simucase—an online learning platform that connects users to videos and simulations based on real people's stories—can improve their decision-making skills and help them prepare to practice in clinical settings.

The front-line representatives of our innovative technology, Student Ambassadors are committed to excellence and deliver superior customer service at all times. The success of Simucase depends on the strong foundation built by our Student Ambassadors.

Responsibilities:

- ◇ Provide feedback on new simulations & video content
- ◇ Test new features of the platform
- ◇ Promote Simucase via social media/online presence
- ◇ Participate in focus groups as needed

Reports To:

- ◇ Emily Fogleman, Sales Marketing Coordinator

Compensation:

- ◇ Complimentary Simucase membership while you're participating in the Student Ambassador Program
- ◇ Access to Simucase mentors

Effective Date:

Initial term is for one semester following the effective date. Contract may be terminated at any time prior to the end of the semester if performance expectations are not met.

TO APPLY:

marketing@simucase.com